ANNOUNCEMENT

49th Ten-Day International Teaching Seminar on Cardiovascular Disease Epidemiology and Prevention, June 3-16, 2017, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

The International Society of Cardiovascular Disease Epidemiology and Prevention announces the 49th Ten-Day International Teaching Seminar on Cardiovascular Disease Epidemiology and Prevention to be held in June 3-16, 2017, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia co hosted by Sunway University. Approximately 36 Fellows can be accepted. The final selection will be made by the Society's Seminar Committee. Nominees should normally be at the postgraduate level with residency training or its equivalent, and be interested in cardiovascular disease epidemiology. Normally, preference will be given to younger candidates, with little or no formal training in epidemiology. Tuition, board and accommodation are provided without cost to fellows. Fellows and their sponsors are responsible for their own travel costs to the seminar.

FLUENCY IN ENGLISH IS AN ABSOLUTE ESSENTIAL

Should any accepted Fellow be unable to attend, no substitute not reviewed by the Seminar Committee may be sent as an alternate by the institution.

There is no formal application form. Applications, including (1) a signed letter of nomination by chief of department or institution, or other relevant sponsor (2) a personal letter of application from the nominee, and (3) the applicant's curriculum vitae, should be received by February 15 2017 by the seminar coordinator at the address below. Applications can be sent by email.
